Lancaster Intelligencer.

Western Correspondence.
An "Intelligencer Boy" in Nebraska.
NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Feb. 17, 1880.

As you will notice by the above heading I am again in this city. I thought I was destined to be a future resident of Lincoln, this state. Financially considered I had a better offering at Lincoln, but did not like it and "have returned to my first love," as the boys in the office say.

Lincoln is a fast town and a real Western town at that. It has a population of about 10,000 and, like all new Western towns, is growing rapidly. All the state institutions are located there; and a great benefit to it they certainly are. Notable among these is the state penitentiary. A fine building it is, too, and contains at present some of the most noted characters of this country. Such fellows as "Doc," Middleton and Olive and his gang are quietly whiling away their time within its thick walls. I took a good survey of the town. It is the "breeziest" place I ever visited. Some days it is almost impossible to walk through the streets for the high winds which blow. There are no trees either in the town limits or for miles around, so there is nothing to check the force of the wind, consequently when she comes she comes, and you must have a "clear upper story" and good "understanding" or down goes your house, and all superfluous or loose apparel is sure to give you a chase for its recovery. The plan of the city is laid out in a broad plan, and by standing in its centre you can see for many miles around, but the view is not inviting, as you see nothing but the bare earth.

In the neighborhood are some Indians and I had a look at some of them, but don't think I would want any truck with them. To see the squaws carrying the loads and the bucks walking ahead looks rather selfish especially to the females.

I like Nebraska City and am glad to get back here again, feeling that "it is good to be here." Am again nicely fixed and have for "a pard" a young fellow named Shuman, formerly from Plymouth, Pennsylvania. We Pennsylvanians (he and I) have a room over his store (he keeps a store), where we sleep, taking our meals at the hotel near by, and we find it much the cheapest plan of boarding here. The only objection I have to this kind of living, however, is that I have been appointed "C.
M." (chambermaid) and am subject to the duties necessary to the position. It is, in my mind, a convincing argument of the soundness of the advice, "young man, get a wife." However, that is much easier said than done here, as the field of selection is a barren waste in comparison with old Lancaster.

Printing business is picking up here and I think by spring it will be good throughout the West. In St. Paul, the boys had a strike, but were unsuccessful, as most strikers are, and their "sits" were filled by outsiders. They were receiving 33 cents per 1000 "ems," and struck for 37 cents. The Kansas City strike resulted the same way. This country is flooded with "prints." One came in from Omaha to-day, who says there are about 100 in that city and the Bluffs. I meet many from Pennsylvania, but none of them acquaintances. I met a young fellow from Mount Joy, your county, in Omaha, last fall, on the Harold, but I have forgotten his name. Jake Thomas, an old Lancaster boy, is still on the C. B. Nonpareil. An old INTELLIGENCER boy, A. V. Weidle, was in this section last fall; was then in Marshalltown, Iowa, and afterwards wrote me that he had taken a railroad situation, but have since lost track of him. I should like to take a look at the old INTELLIGENCER boys again and see whether there has been much change or not. Remember me to them all.
I occasionally receive a copy of the paper and it seems like an old acquaintance to me.
J. R. D.

Concerning Suffrage.
The criticism of the New York Sun upon a recent oration at Millersville, in which the orator took the ground that an educational qualification should be required as a condition of suffrage, contains points which suggest an extension of the application of the principles, he lays down to certain other conditions which lie at the root of illiterate representation.

That, in a country of free schools with education in the reach of all, two millions of taxpayers should annually deposit a ballot which they cannot read, argues something radically wrong either in the school system itself or in the measures adopted to carry it out. So long as provision is made for the education of all, and the use of this means is left optional with those for whom it is provided, we must expect that the present proportion of ignorant suffragists will appear at the polls; nor can we justly deny them their right of representation.

The state does not demand that her citizens shall be educated, she leaves them to choose whether they will or no ("more's the pity"). It is evident that the state does not consider intelligent franchise essential to her well-being, or the school law as well as the school tax, would be compulsory.
A question arises right here as to whether it is just to make one compulsory and not the other. Does it not favor of obtaining money under false pretenses? However we may decide this question, we must agree that if an "educational qualification be required as a condition of suffrage," the proper place to begin is not with the man who may be an honest citizen and a good servant of the commonwealth, but by the exaction of such laws as will prevent children from growing up in ignorance. This can come only through a compulsory school law. It may not be called a "compulsory school law," for this term is particularly obnoxious to a certain class of popular educators, but in effect it will amount to the same thing.

CUTICURA!

HUMORS OF THE BLOOD, SKIN AND SCALP.
CUTICURA RESOLVENT is the most powerful Blood Purifier and Liver Stimulant ever compounded. In forty minutes after taking the first dose it may be detected in the saliva, blood, sweat and urine, showing that it has entered the blood and been distributed throughout the entire system. In its passage through the circulating fluids it meets with the corrupt particles of matter which foster and maintain disease, with which it chemically unites, dissolving and gradually eliminating them from the system.

Hence its power to forever cure Scrofulous, Cancerous and Canker Humors, which unchecked all the body with foul eruptions and rot out the delicate machinery of life.

CUTICURA, the great external remedy for all Humors of the Scalp and Skin, Cancers, Sores and Discharging Wounds, is the most soothing and healing of outward applications. It restores the oil glands and tubes to a healthy condition, and cures, when assisted by the CUTICURA SOAP, Diseases of the Skin and Scalp which have been the torture of a life time.

SKIN DISEASE.
Great Suffering for Sixteen Years. A Wonderful Cure by the Cuticura Remedies.
MISSISSIPPI: "Gentlemen:—CUTICURA has done more for me in a power of good, I have been afflicted with skin disease for sixteen years. Some days it troubled me more than others, but at night the itching nearly drove me wild.
I would scratch until the blood would run down my limbs.
I have had several physicians. Some said they could cure me, but others said not.
I will say that before I used the CUTICURA Remedies I was in a fearful state, and had given up all hope of ever having any relief.
But, like a drowning man grasping at a straw, I thought I would try the CUTICURA Remedies, about which I had read so much.
They have performed a wonderful cure for me, and of my own free will and accord I recommend them. Yours truly, S. A. STEELE,
68 W. Van Buren St., Chicago, Ill., March 17, 1879.

MORE GOOD THAN DOCTORS
In Three Years of Treatment.
Gentlemen:—Please find 50 cents to pay for small box of CUTICURA and direct it to me. The dollar box you sent me has done me more good than all the doctors in three years. The doctors have done me no good. My feet and legs are healing fast. It is indeed CUTICURA.
Yours truly,
EVAN MORGAN, P. M.
Moscow, Miss., June 25, 1878.

CUTICURA SOAP
Superior to Any.
CHAS. DENNIS, Druggist,
First Place on Court Street, Brooklyn, March 4, 1879.
I can cheerfully speak of the healing qualities of your CUTICURA SOAP, and its perfume is superior to any of the standard soaps now in use.

The CUTICURA Remedies are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, 309 Washington Street, Boston, and are for sale by all druggists. Price of Cuticura, small boxes, 5 cents; large boxes, containing two and one half times the quantity of small, $1. Resolvent, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Soap, 25 cents per cake; 49 mail, 25 cents; three cakes, 75 cents.

COLLINS' ELECTRIC
VOLTAGE
PLASTERS
By instantly affecting the nervous system, the influence of the electric current is felt at the farthest extremities of the body, which is free from a disturbance of the Nerve Forces, is cured in every instance as if by magic. Also, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Liver and Kidneys, Irritation of the Stomach and Bowels, Indiges-
